The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY, Jan. 12, 1912.

To the Honorable Senate and the House of Representatives: —

I have the honor to submit, in compliance with the Revised Laws, chapter 5, section 10, a report of the transactions of this office for the year ending Nov. 30, 1911 (being the twentieth annual), including the returns of the number of liquor licenses granted by the several cities and towns, the amounts received for such licenses, and the votes of the cities and towns on the question of granting them; also the returns of the sheriffs of the several counties of money received by them and of their attendance upon a court of record and the county commissioners.

There is also presented, in compliance with the statute of 1905, chapter 321, abstract and tabular statements of the returns of the clerks of the superior court for the several counties and the clerk of the superior court for civil business in the county of Suffolk; of the number of jury cases, of jury waived cases and of equity suits pending at the beginning of the year; of the number of each of said three classes of cases entered during the year; of the number of cases of each class actually tried during the year; of the number of cases of each class disposed of during the year by agreement of the parties or by order of the court; of the number of cases of each class remaining untried at the end of the year; of the number of cases wherein the verdict of the jury has been set aside by the court on the ground that it is excessive; and of the number of days during which the court has sat in each county for the hearing of each of said three classes of cases.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.

The following table shows, in detail, the receipts from fees, etc., all of which were paid into the treasury monthly, and quarterly reports thereof made to the Governor and Council, as required by Revised Laws, chapter 5, section 1: —

Commissions,	$14,145 00
Corporation certificates,	155,093 26
Limited partnerships,	38 00
Pedlers' licenses,	12,698 00
Coal and coke licenses,	3,660 00
Sale of books, etc.,	2,535 50
Sale of Bradford Histories,	76 00
Sale of Blue Books,	1,072 70
Labels, trade-marks, etc.,	908 00
Interest,	208 61
Miscellaneous: —
Certificates,	$846 00
Military Records,	177 15
Copies,	1,290 00
Advance sheets,	372 00
Sale of old plates,	1,066 30
	<hr/>
	3,751 45
	<hr/>
	$194,186 52

The receipts were $43,216.43 greater than those of the year preceding, due mostly to the increase in the income from corporation certificates.

The total expenses for salaries and incidentals during the year were $48,771.37, from which it appears that there was turned into the treasury of the Commonwealth over $145,000 more than the office expenses.

The salary of the first deputy secretary of the Commonwealth is $2,500 a year. This is a very inadequate compensation for the services rendered by this official, and is besides very much less than is received by more than a score of persons occupying subordinate positions in the service of the Commonwealth. I recommend that his salary be fixed at $3,500 a year.

I also recommend that the secretary be authorized to appoint an additional permanent clerk, to be known as Commission Clerk, at a salary of $1,500 a year. The work to be performed by this clerk has, for the last twenty-three years, been performed by one of the so-styled extra clerks at a salary of $1,200, the limit allowed by law for extra clerks. The work of this clerk has more than doubled during his period of service, and it would seem that after such long and efficient service he is entitled to the slight increase for which I ask.

COMMISSIONS.

(Room 331.)

The number of commissions issued during the year ending Nov. 30, 1911, was 3,081 (an increase of 158 over the preceding year), of which 252 were without fee, and 199 became void by reason of the failure of the appointees to take out the commissions or to qualify thereunder. The different classes were as follows: —

Justices of the peace,	1,470
Notaries public,	1,242
Commissioners, trustees, etc.,	108
Special commissioners,	42
Justices of the peace to solemnize marriages,	40
Supervisors of election,	18
Justices of the peace to issue warrants and take bail,	17
Special district police officers,	17
Commissioners in other States,	14
Medical examiners,	14
Clerks, municipal, police and district courts,	13
Justices and associate justices, police, municipal and district courts,	12
Masters in chancery,	12
Public warehousemen,	10
Associate justices of the superior court,	9
Associate medical examiners,	7
District police officers,	6
Commissioners in foreign countries,	4
Commissioners to qualify public officers,	4
Fire inspectors of the district police,	3
Trial justices,	2
Public administrators,	2
Registers of probate and insolvency,	2
Assistant inspectors of gas and gas meters,	2
Pilot,	1
Sheriff,	1
Police commissioner, city of Boston,	1
Surveyor-general of lumber,	1
Inspector of gas and gas meters,	1
Chief justice of the supreme judicial court,	1
Associate justice of the supreme judicial court,	1

Private secretary to the governor,	1
Executive clerk,	1
Judge of probate and insolvency,	1
Person to make tables of changes in General Laws,	1
	<hr/>
	3,081

Certificates to the number of 3,556 were issued. Fees were remitted for 516.

CORPORATIONS.

(Rooms 334, 335, 336.)

The total number of certificates of incorporation issued under general laws to new corporations for the fiscal year ending Nov. 30, 1911, was 1,770, — an increase of 200, as compared with the fiscal year ending Nov. 30, 1910. They are classified as follows: —

Trading corporations (under chapter 437, Acts of 1903),	1,387
Religious, charitable, social, educational, musical, athletic, etc., corporations (under Revised Laws, chapter 125, section 6),	268
Fraternal beneficiary corporations (under Revised Laws, chapter 119),	45
Churches (under Revised Laws, chapter 36, section 51),	20
Credit unions (under chapter 419, Acts of 1909),	13
Co-operative banks (under Revised Laws, chapter 114),	11
Public-service corporations (under Revised Laws, chapter 110, section 20),	10
Milk commissions (under chapter 506, Acts of 1911),	7
Trust companies (under chapter 374, Acts of 1904),	5
Railroad companies (under chapter 463, part II., Acts of 1906),	2
Insurance company (under chapter 576, Acts of 1907),	1
Assessment insurance company (under Revised Laws, chapter 120),	1
Street railway company (under chapter 463, part III., Acts of 1906),	1

The number of miscellaneous certificates filed and recorded was 9,261, — an increase of 785, as compared with the fiscal year ending Nov. 30, 1910. Of these, 6,550 were certificates of condition of Massachusetts corporations (under section 51, chapter 110 of the Revised Laws, and section 45, chapter 437, Acts of 1903); 1,387 were articles of organization of trading corporations (under chapter 437, Acts of 1903); 268 were certificates of religious, charitable, social and other organizations (under chapter 125 of the Revised Laws); 338 were certificates of issue of capital stock of trading corporations (under chapter 437, Acts of 1903); and the others were distributed among 30 different classes.

The number of miscellaneous certificates filed and not recorded was 2,260, of which 2,107 were certificates of condition of foreign corporations (under chapter 126 of the Revised Laws and section 66 of chapter 437, Acts of 1903), and the others were divided among 12 other classes.

There were issued 15 certificates of change of name of corporations (under chapter 163, Acts of 1908).

Returns were received of the dissolution of 63 corporations by the supreme judicial and superior courts.

Under the act relating to the incorporation of clubs, 7 certificates of incorporation which had been issued to clubs were declared void, upon evidence that the premises of the clubs were used for illegal purposes; and charters were refused in 38 cases.

Details of all these statistics appear in the Abstract of Certificates of Corporations, published by this office (Public Document, No. 10).

Limited partnership certificates to the number of 38 were filed and recorded.

LABELS, TRADE-MARKS, ETC.

(Room 334.)

By chapter 72, section 7, Revised Laws, which relates to the adoption and registration of labels, trade-marks, stamps and forms of advertisement, the duty is placed upon the Secretary of the Commonwealth of receiving, filing and recording such labels, etc., and of issuing and recording certificates of record. Under this law, labels, trade-marks, stamps and forms of advertisement were received and certificates of record issued and recorded in 454 cases.

INSIGNIA OF SOCIETIES AND LABOR UNIONS.

(Room 334.)

Chapter 335, Acts of 1904, provides for the registration in this office of the insignia, ribbons, badges, rosettes, buttons and emblems of societies, associations and labor unions. Five registrations were received, which have been included with the number of labels above given under section 7, chapter 72, Revised Laws.

MARKS AND DEVICES ON CANS, ETC.

(Room 334.)

By chapter 72, section 15, Revised Laws, which provides for the protection of owners of cans, bottles, boxes, siphons and fountains used in the sale of soda water, mineral and aerated waters, ale, beer, ginger ale or similar beverages, it is made the duty of the Secretary of the Commonwealth to receive and file descriptions of marks, devices, etc.; and under this law 6 such descriptions were received and filed. Under section 19 of said chapter 72, Revised Laws, protecting dealers and consumers against the unlawful use and destruction of milk cans, jugs, bottles or jars, 23 descriptions of marks, devices, etc., were received and filed.

VITAL STATISTICS.

(Room 332.)

The returns of births and marriages from the various cities and towns for the year 1910 which were received in 1911, cover 86,539 births and 30,710 marriages, — an increase, as compared with the returns of 1909, of 2,500 births and an increase of 1,708 marriages.

Under the provisions of an act of 1903, chapter 305, there were received from Dec. 1, 1910, to Nov. 30, 1911, 60,195 certified copies of records of deaths. This number includes duplicates and stillbirths, which are eliminated in the tables of the registration report (Public Document, No. 1).

The medical examiners' returns for 1910 cover 5,170 cases, — an increase of 557, as compared with the returns for 1909.

The returns by the clerks of the courts of the decrees of divorce for 1910 number 2,473, being an increase of 107, as compared with the returns for 1909.

All of these figures are compiled and presented fully in the sixty-sixth registration report (Public Document, No. 1).

For several years the bound copies of records of births, marriages and deaths received from the several cities and towns have been kept in the Archives Division of this office (Room 432), while the indexes to the copies of records, numbering nearly 9,000,000 cards, and the copies of the records during the preparation of the Registration Report (Public Document, No. 1), have been kept in Room

332, on the floor below. During the past year balconies have been constructed and the bound copies of records and cases have been placed in Room 332, and now all copies of records of births, marriages and deaths, with indexes thereto, are in one room, making them more accessible to the public and giving the much-needed space in the Archives Division for the proper care and protection of the valuable archives collection.

THE ARCHIVES.

(Rooms 432, 433.)

The number of visitors during the year was 2,670; the number of written inquiries for military records was 578; for historical and miscellaneous subjects, 132; number of certificates of military service issued, 177; the number of certified copies from the legislative records and miscellaneous collection was 197. The amount of fees received for military records was $177.15; for copies, $139.75; making a total of $316.90.

Three volumes of the valuable manuscript collection have been treated and rebound in a manner similar to those taken care of in previous years. The separate documents were cleaned, dampened, pressed and mounted upon bond paper leaves and placed in ecru morocco bindings. The pursuance of this course year by year assures the preservation of the manuscripts in the most creditable manner and according to modern standards.

No new work has been undertaken, but the clerks, in such intervals of time as transpire apart from service on visitors or making researches in connection with mail inquiries, occupy themselves in the compilation of name indexes to the military series and other volumes in the manuscript collection, making new tables of contents and work of a similar nature, thereby constantly increasing the accessibility of the records. This sort of work is practically continuous.

The number of visitors during the year to the room where the vital records were previously deposited was 6,154. There were issued 246 certificates of births, 430 certificates of marriages and 270 certificates of deaths, making a total of 946. The amount of fees received was $86.

There were received and filed in connection with the vital statistics, under the provisions of chapter 470, Acts of 1902, 10 volumes of manuscript copies of records of births, marriages and deaths in towns prior to 1850. The volumes received comprise the vital records of the following towns: Andover, Chester, Foxborough, Hanson, Ipswich, Leominster, Newburyport (volume 1), Pembroke, West Boylston and Wrentham (volume 2). The two clerks who were assigned to this particular phase of the work, in addition to waiting upon visitors and making searches, also sorted alphabetically the index cards prepared for the 1909 returns in order that they might be placed in the file boxes.

The attention of the Legislature is called to the necessity of an appropriation for providing and installing additional metal cases for the files in the Archives Division of the office.

DOCUMENT DIVISION.

(Room 333.)

There were printed under the direction of this office, during the year, in the Public Document series (numbering 84 different reports), 241,400 volumes, — an increase of 15,600 volumes. Of this number, 220,456 were distributed, being supplied to members of the General Court, to cities and towns, public officers, libraries and to the general public.

In addition to the Public Document series there were printed and distributed 20,000 copies of the pamphlet edition of the laws; 9,800 copies of the Blue Book; 13,500 copies of the Manual for the General Court; 1,000 copies each of the Senate and House Journals; and there were also received and distributed 6,000 copies of the Public Document series; 5,000 copies of Provisions of Law concerning Innholders and Common Victuallers, 5,000 copies of Laws relating to Elections; 5,000 copies of Supplement to Laws relating to Elections; 2,000 copies of the Report of the Joint Commission on the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company; 750 copies of the Province Laws (volume 17); 750 copies of the Forty-fifth Annual Encampment, Department of Massachusetts, G. A. R.; 500 copies of the History of the Fifth Massachusetts Regiment; 500 copies each of the Vital Records of Andover (volume 1), Chester, Foxborough, Hanson, Ipswich (volume 1), Leominster, Newburyport (volume 1), Pembroke, West Boylston and Wrentham (volume 2), making a grand total of 316,700 — an increase of 14,634 over the year 1910 — which have passed through the Document Division during the year.

PRINTING AND DISTRIBUTION OF THE BLUE BOOK.

The present authorized edition of the Blue Book is 9,800 copies. The law provides specifically for the free distribution of 8,943 copies, including the number supplied to the members of the General Court and to its officers, the number required for distribution to the courts of the Commonwealth, to the cities and towns, departments, boards and commissions, and 280 copies reserved for members of the succeeding General Court. In addition to this, chapter 80 of the Acts of 1910 provides that the chairman of each board of city and town officials elected by the voters of the city or town shall each be supplied with a copy, upon application.

The following extract from the report of the late Secretary Olin for the year 1910 shows that it is impossible to comply with the law in regard to the distribution of the Blue Book with the present authorized edition: —

Chapter 80 of the Acts of 1910 requires that the Secretary of the Commonwealth shall, in addition to the former distribution of the Blue Book edition of the Acts and Resolves, send one copy to each city and town treasurer and auditor, and, upon application, to the chairman of each board of city and town officials elected by the voters of the city or town. As the Legislature neither authorized an increase in the edition, nor made any appropriation therefor, I was unable to comply fully with this law. It will be remembered that the Legislature of 1909, acting upon the recommendation of a commission specially charged with the duty of submitting "suggestions for greater economy" in the printing and distribution of legislative and public documents, reduced the edition of the Blue Book from 12,000 to 9,500. In proceeding under the act of 1910 it was found that the number of copies required for town and city treasurers is 354; the number required for auditors, 510; making a total of 864. The number of elective boards of city and town officials each of whose chairmen would be entitled to a copy upon application is estimated at 2,478, it being found that the average number of such boards is seven to each municipality. A requisition from a single town received during the year covers ten such boards. This makes a total addition of 3,342 to the former distribution. The former official distribution required 8,006 books; the number required to supply paying customers is about 1,000, making 9,000; so that to have enough copies to comply with the new law the total number to be printed would not only increase the edition to its former size, but add several hundred more. As the Blue Book of 1910 costs $1.15 per copy for paper, printing and binding, the expense would be at least $3,000. In my judgment, this increase is unnecessary. In the first place, the laws and resolves are printed and distributed to all officials requiring their use as soon as they are signed by the Governor, and any person can purchase these advance sheets for the session at a nominal charge of $2. Second, these laws are printed from time to time, under contract, in the "Boston Daily Advertiser." Third, a pamphlet edition of 20,000 copies is sent to every city and town clerk for free public distribution, and many of these are left untouched. In my opinion, there is not a sufficient reason for an increase in the edition of the Blue Book at present, and I therefore recommend the repeal of chapter 80 of the Acts of 1910.

Receiving many requests under the provisions of said chapter 80, I felt it necessary to ask the Attorney-General as to my duty in the matter of distribution. He replied as follows:—

I am of opinion that it is the duty of the Secretary to distribute in accordance with the statutes to any person entitled thereunder to a copy so long as the Blue Books last, and that the Secretary cannot refuse to give a person so entitled a copy for the purpose of retaining the same to distribute under other provisions.

Either the number of copies of the Blue Book to be distributed at the expense of the Commonwealth must be reduced or the edition must be increased. In my judgment there is no alternative.

I repeat the recommendation of my predecessor, with the suggestion that the repeal be only of that portion of the law which relates to the chairmen of boards, etc. This would leave the number supplied to cities and towns amply sufficient for their use, and would also leave a sufficient number to supply the demand by attorneys and others who desire to purchase the book.

I suggest that a limited number of Blue Books be placed at the disposal of the Secretary for distribution in certain important cases not now provided for by law.

DISPOSITION OF EXCESS OF PUBLIC DOCUMENTS.

About ten years ago a clearance was made of a large quantity of books of the Public Document series, so called, which had accumulated for many years. Again there is an excess, which occupies space in our storerooms now absolutely necessary for later editions. To relieve this congestion I recommend that action be taken authorizing the Secretary of the Commonwealth to make from time to time such disposition of the Public Documents and other documents in his charge as he deems advisable, subject to the approval of the Governor and Council.

TOWNS DISCARDING PUBLIC DOCUMENTS.

Under the provisions of chapter 422 of the Acts of 1908, "An Act relative to the distribution of public documents to cities and towns," thirteen towns have voted not to receive the series of Public Documents; and upon the recommendation of the Commissioner of Public Records, who reports that, in his opinion, such towns are unable to make suitable provision for the care and use of such documents, this office has during the year discontinued sending them to the following towns: Barnstable, Brewster, Harwich, Lakeville, Marion, Orange, Palmer, Paxton, Prescott, Rehoboth, Rochester, Rowe and Sandisfield. These, added to those previously discarding the Public Document series, make thirty-one towns to which these books are not sent.

STATE PRINTING.

The cost of printing Public Documents in 1911, including the Manual, Blue Book and Journals, was $41,735.64, — an increase of $1,511.88 over that of 1910. The most expensive single report in the Public Document series was that of the Board of Railroad Commissioners, — $7,307.55, — an increase of more than $2,000 over the amount for 1910, owing chiefly to certain forms and additional matter required by the Interstate Commerce Commission. The report of the Board of Agriculture cost $5,924.76, — a slight increase over that for the year 1910. The report of the Bank Commissioner cost $5,489.10. The smallest Public Document issued was that of the Commission on War Records, which cost $11.86. Two new documents were added to the list this year, Report of the Board of Registration of Nurses (No. 91), and Statements concerning Metropolitan Parks, Sewerage and Water Districts (No. 92). The Blue Book cost $11,497.86, — an increase of almost $3,000 over the amount for 1910. This increase was caused by a larger edition (300 volumes) and the fact that the book contains 387 pages more than that of the previous year. The Manual cost $4,821.45; the Senate Journal $2,142.35, — an increase of about $500 over that of 1910; the House Journal $2,586.86, — an increase of over $500. In each case the increase was caused by the book's being larger, by over 500 pages, than the year before. The Senate printing bill was $11,483.24 and the House printing bill $28,102.66, — an increase of over $300 in each case. The cost of printing the official ballots was $9,004.20, — a decrease of about $475 over that of 1910.

PEDLERS' LICENSES.

(Room 333.)

There were issued to hawkers and pedlers during the twelve months December, 1910, to November, inclusive, of 1911, under the provisions of chapter 65, Revised Laws, as amended by chapter 531, Acts of 1902, chapter 432, Acts of 1903, chapters 204 and 377, Acts of 1905, chapters 151 and 345, Acts of 1906, and chapter 571, Acts of 1907, 1,353 licenses, — an increase of 57 over the year 1910. Of this number, 230 were for the State, 629 for counties and 494 for cities and towns.

Three itinerant vendors' State licenses were issued.

The number of transfers of licenses was 85.

COAL AND COKE LICENSES.

(Room 333.)

The number of licenses issued for the sale of coal and coke between Dec. 1, 1910, and Nov. 30, 1911, inclusive, under the provisions of chapter 484, Acts of 1903, as amended by chapter 434, Acts of 1906, was 965 in cities and 78 in towns, — a total of 1,043, — an increase of 139 over 1910. Fees were received for the continuance of 2,617 licenses under the provisions of chapter 434, Acts of 1906, — an increase of 364 over the year 1910.

CHANGES OF NAMES.

The returns of 641 names changed in 1910, as decreed by the several probate courts, were received and filed, in compliance with the requirements of the Revised Laws, chapter 154, section 14, and published in the Blue Book.

SPECIAL LAWS.

The accumulation of special laws since the last volume (volume XX) was printed is now sufficient to make a volume of about 1,450 pages, about as large as can be bound and conveniently handled. This series has been continued from the adoption of the Constitution down to and including the year 1908. If it is deemed advisable to continue the publication of this series of the laws it will be necessary for the General Court of 1912 to provide for the publication of an additional volume covering the special legislation of the years 1909, 1910 and 1911.

RETURNS UNDER THE "LOBBY ACT."

Under what is known as the "lobby act" (Revised Laws, chapter 3, sections 23 to 32, inclusive), 403 entries were made upon the dockets of legislative counsel and agents, — an increase of 28, as compared with 1910. Returns were received at this office covering 379 of these entries. Of those received, it became the duty of the Secretary to transmit 24 to the Attorney-General for his information, 7 of them appearing to be irregular or defective, and the 17 others being received after the expiration of the time limit. The 24 cases of delinquency were reported to the Attorney-General, as required by law.

PROCLAMATIONS.

The usual Thanksgiving and Arbor Day proclamations were printed and distributed under the direction of this office. Of the Thanksgiving proclamation, about 3,000 were sent by mail to churches and about 100 to institutions; and of the Arbor Day proclamation, 1,050 were distributed by mail. There were also mailed to the cities and towns, for the use of the schools, 3,500 Lincoln Day proclamations. Two proclamations promulgating the thirty-eighth and thirty-ninth amendments to the Constitution were issued by the Governor and distributed to cities and towns.

ENGROSSING.

During the closing days of each legislative session it becomes difficult, under existing law, to make rapid progress in engrossing bills, and I suggest to the Legislature the advisability of considering a change in method. Section 19, chapter 3 of the Revised Laws provides that:—

Bills and resolves which have been passed to be engrossed shall, under the direction of the secretary of the commonwealth, be fairly engrossed on parchment in a plain and legible hand-writing, without interlineation, and with a margin of not less than one inch on each side.

As this law provides that the engrossing shall be done by hand, on parchment, rapidity is difficult and although extra clerks are engaged on the work during the closing days of each legislative session, the results are not entirely satisfactory, and as the work is done in some States by printing or typewriting, I suggest the advisability of considering an amendment to the law, permitting engrossing by hand or typewriting, and on parchment or parchment paper.

PARDONS, REQUISITIONS, ETC.

The number of pardons made out and issued during the year was 74; requisitions upon other States, 63; warrants issued upon requisitions from other States, 28; remander to State Prison of paroled prisoner, 1; parole from State Prison, 1; commutation of sentence, 1.

NATURALIZATION RETURNS.

Under provisions of the Revised Laws, chapter 166, section 17, returns were received of the naturalization of 1,019 persons before the various courts of the Commonwealth during the year 1910,—an increase of 187, as compared with the returns for 1909. These returns were indexed and bound in convenient form for reference, as required by law.

MISCELLANEOUS.

As required by law, returns of the Surveyor-General of Lumber of the various kinds and quantities of lumber surveyed and the amount of fees received by him and his deputies in the year 1910 were received and filed.

The three special reports from this office which form a part of the Public Document series, namely: Returns of Births, Marriages and Deaths (Public Document, No. 1), Abstract of Certificates of Corporations (Public Document, No. 10), and Returns of Assessed Polls, Registered Voters and Persons who Voted, etc. (Public Document, No. 43), have been made, as required by law.

ALBERT P. LANGTRY,

Secretary of the Commonwealth.
